Homestead, PA 15120

SERVICES PROVIDED

PARENT ASSISTANCE LINE

(412) 394-5930

A member will answer questions or provide information to the caller concerning special education issues.

CYCLICAL MONITORINGS

School districts are audited by the Bureau of Special Education every 5 years. The LTF provides information to the chairperson of the cyclical monitoring team. This information can be commendations or issues and concerns which have been brought to the task force's attention.

LTF MONITORINGS

The LTF will put together a team to monitor a particular classroom(s) in a school building when a request is made by a parent or LTF member. A report of both commendations and recommendations is presented at a designated LTF monthly meeting.

About the Local Task Force on the Right to Education

OUR MISSION

The Local Task Force serves as a resource for children with all disabilities and their families in the 42 school districts in Allegheny County.

Our role is to communicate needs and problems to the appropriate sources.

HISTORY

The Local Task Force (LTF) system was established in 1972 as part of the Consent Decree between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the PA Association for Retarded Citizens. The PARC Consent Decree guaranteed a free public program of education for all school-aged persons with mental retardation or thought-to-have mental retardation regardless of their intellectual functioning.

MEMBERSHIP

The Local Task Force on the Right to Education is open to:

PARENTS

EDUCATORS

AGENCY REPRESENTATIVES

Under the Consent Decree, parents must make up 51% of the membership.

MEETING SCHEDULE

Meetings are held the first Wednesday of every month except July and August at the Allegheny Intermediate Unit offices at the Waterfront in Homestead from 7:00 till 9:00 p.m.
